Bishop Paul S. Morton Begins Radio Tour for Final Solo Release

Award winning recording artist, Pastor and Worship Leader Bishop Paul S. Morton has begun radio tours for the release of his final solo album. The release is titled Legacy: Live In New Orleans and is scheduled for stores on Friday October 28, 2016.

The fifteen-track project is lead by the single “Watching Over Me” and was recorded live in New Orleans, LA in 2015 and celebrated Morton’s 30 year career as a recording artist. Recorded at the Greater St. Stephen Full Gospel Baptist Church, Morton is supported by the Greater Change Mass Choir which features members of the New Orleans based Greater St. Stephen Church Choir and the Atlanta based Changing A Generation Church Choir.

Talented Award Winning Producer Trent Phillips and AyRon Lewis handle production duties on this project as it features appearances from Pastor Shirley Caesar, Bishop Rance Allen, Tasha Cobbs, Lisa Knowles, Zacardi Cortez, and William Murphy III. In addition, Morton enlists the help of his Grammy Award winning son PJ Morton and DeWayne Woods as the trio cover the hit single “Let Go”.

In 2015, Bishop Morton retired as Presiding Bishop of the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship, an organization he founded in 1994. He continues to preach at Changing A Generation Full Gospel Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia where he serves as Senior Pastor and Greater St. Stephens where he serves as Co-Pastor

Legacy: Live In New Orleans is currently available for pre-order at all digital outlets with the lead single “Watching Over Me” available as an instant download. The project is scheduled for store release on Friday, October 28.
